

Institutional Review Board of Taft College

Faculty doing human experiments in their discipline must submit an application for said purpose to the IRB. The Taft College President selects the board members. Please find the application form on this faculty resource website and submit the form to the Office of Instruction, who will compile and communicate the applications to the IRB in advance of each semester.