Catalog Description: This course is a study of representative literary works from various cultures from the dawn of literature to the late seventeenth century. The course includes texts from many cultures, but explores canonical western texts less than other, non-western texts. Course emphasizes applying critical thinking to literature, investigating cultural contexts, applying reasoned analysis, comparing themes and structures of different texts, research, and practicing academic conventions of literary discourse in writing. C-ID: ENGL 140

Additional Instructional Materials: None

Course Objectives:

By the end of the semester, a successful student will be able to:

1. Investigate historical and cultural contexts of literary works from disparate cultures throughout the ages,
2. Support interpretations of literary texts with detailed analysis of the text itself,
3. Use literary terminology and reasoned analysis to discuss the aesthetic effects of form in literary works,
4. Compare themes, content, and form of texts from different cultures and time periods,
5. Compare traditions and value systems of different cultures and relate these comparisons to literary texts,
6. Evaluate credibility of secondary sources,
7. Synthesize secondary sources, whether criticism or background materials, into discussion of primary literary texts,
