Using Whiteboard in NetTutor’s Live Tutoring Sessions

If there are students in line before you, keep the window open while you are waiting. When it is your turn, you will hear a bell and you will be sent into

When your live session begins, you will be able to communicate with the tutor through this chat screen.

Live Tutor Whiteboard: If you need to show the tutor a problem, a screenshot, or part of your work, you can ask to use the whiteboard.

Whiteboard:

Select and move an object
Text tool (typing)
Paragraph Text Cut/Paste Tool
HTML editor tool
Math equation editor tool
Freehand pencil doodling
Drawing straight line
Pointer
Highlight
Draw a rectangle
Draw a oval
Reference a URL link
Draw a fraction
Draw a square root sign

Aromatic Benzene Ring
Dipole
Straight line double arrow tool
Straight double line drawing tool
Straight triple line drawing tool
Wedge Connection
Eraser
Insert Image/PDF
Pick a drawing color
Emoticons
Exit Whiteboard

Drop off your Question: If Live tutoring is unavailable, you may drop off your question and a tutor will get back to you.

Drop off your Paper: Here NetTutor will take you through a series of prompts asking informational questions regarding your paper in order to provide the best assistance for you and your paper.

Your Locker: Here you are able to view past Question Feedback, past tutoring sessions as well as paper feedback. This is archive of all usage in NetTutor.

Distance Education Helpdesk:
(661) 763-7917
&
(661) 763-7878

Distance Education
Going the Distance for our students!